

Banning and Reinstatement Details

Teradata 12 and Teradata 14 Certification Tracks

If you are banned after taking a Teradata 12 exam:

- you can never take any more Teradata 12 exams;
- you cannot take any Teradata 14 exams until 1 year after the start of your ban;
- 1 year after the start of your ban, if you have not incurred any subsequent security violations, you may be invited to reinstate and begin taking Teradata 14 exams.

If you are banned after taking a Teradata 14 exam:

- you can never take any more Teradata 14 or Teradata 12 exams;
- 1 year after the start of your ban, if you have not incurred any subsequent security violations and if TCPP has released a new certification track after Teradata 14, you may be invited to reinstate and begin taking Teradata exams in the new certification track.

Upon reinstatement:

- If you were banned due to taking a Teradata 12 exam, you will be allowed to take Teradata 14 exams.
- If you were banned due to taking a Teradata 14 exam, you will be allowed to take exams in the next certification track that is released after Teradata 14.